Intern Sophie Hanks with Katherine Jett in Cymbeline.

Past interns have continued working with GreenStage as actors, designers, tech crew, summer camp teachers, and staff members.

Intern Alexander Hammond with Jessica Stepka in The Merry Wives of Windsor.

Seattle's Shakespeare in the Park Company

GreenStage - Seattle's longest running Shakespeare company, has been producing free theatre in the Puget Sound area since 1989, and is one of a handful of companies in the world that has produced the entire canon of Shakespeare's plays. Our education programs take each student on a personal journey through the world of classic theatre. Their natural imaginations will be embraced and nurtured as their ability to focus and work as a team increases. Each week-long camp ends with a free performance (picnic recommended) in the parks for family and friends.

Playing with Shakespeare! Macbeth

Using the tragic story of Macbeth as a starting point, students will create their own play by twisting the famous tragedy into a comedy—a kind of “Fakespeare”! Students will create this parody together using improv and playwriting techniques to shape their own version of these events. A few basic stage combat moves may be taught and used in our play also. It's up to the students to create a fun version of one of Shakespeare's most bloodthirsty tales.
