

Attention High School Drama Students!

GreenStage Intern Program

Perfect for theatre lovers that will be High School Juniors or Seniors in the fall of 2020.

Interns join the cast and crew of one mainstage Shakespeare in the Park production to learn about all aspects of professional theatre production first hand.

Interns Melissa Wilson and Allison Adams in the 2019 production of The Taming of the Shrew.

Seattle's Shakespeare the Park Company

GreenStage - Seattle's longest running Shakespeare company - encourages students to take a personal journey through the world of classical theatre. Each week-long camp embraces imagination, nurtures focus and teamwork, and ends with a free performance (picnic recommended) in the parks for family and friends.

Youth Theatre Camp • Ages 8-15

The Tempest

Having escaped an assassination plot, Prospero, along with his young daughter, Miranda, finds himself master of a magical island inhabited by spirits and monsters. Using sorcery, he shipwrecks his enemies on the island, with plans to punish them. A wonderful play filled with magic, romance, clowning, and forgiveness. Students will memorize and perform a cutting of this play. Besides working on acting, students will play games while learning to speak and understand Shakespeare's language.

FULL DAY CAMPS - 7 hour/day - Tuition $365

Youth Theatre Camp • Ages 8-15

Improv Shakespeare

Using Shakespeare's words and stories as a starting point, students will create their own play by twisting famous plotlines and characters into a kind of "Fakespeare"! Students will create this parody together using improv and playwriting techniques to shape their own unique play. A few basic stage combat moves may be taught and used.

IMPROV SHAKES LIGHT - 3 hour/day - Tuition $165

July 13–17 • Delridge Community Center

Mon–Thur, 1 pm to 4 pm • Fri, 1 pm to 5 pm - performance at 4 pm.

August 3–7 • Magnuson Park Community Center

Mon–Thur, 9 am to 2 pm • Fri, 9 am to 3 pm - performance at 2 pm.

FULL DAY Youth Camp • Ages 10-17

Romeo & Juliet

Shakespeare's most famous play about the tragic love story of the title characters. Street fighting, love, discovery, poison, and plots that go wrong. The week will be spent learning the story and demystifying the original language while memorizing and rehearsing a cutting of the play. We will also train in some stage combat, including basic swordplay; play some games; and possibly fashion some set pieces.
